Central Alta. Hockey League May Open Here On Dec. 10

Representatives of all clubs in the Central Alberta Intermediate "A" Hockey League met in Lacombe Sunday to draw up a tentative schedule and settle other matters of business. Date proposed for the league opening was Wednesday, Dec. 10 and it is likely Olds will meet Didsbury on that date.

Ponoka was re-admitted to the league but not until they had paid a $250 fine for failure to fulfill an engagement last season and also were assessed a further $170.

It was decided there would be no limit on the number of imports eligible to play with any team. At present the locals have 12 players signed to certificates, including a playing coach, and are negotiating with a former Kootenay league player who is expected to come to terms this week.

There is a strong possibility some games will be broadcast from the Didsbury arena this season, over Station CKRD, Red Deer.

The local club was represented at the Sunday meeting by Cliff Sorenson, Bill Cowan and Ray Shantz.

This Service Of Life And Humanity

You love life! You want to live and so do millions of other Canadians. That is why the Canadian Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service was formed and has reached the heights it maintains. This service wants you to live. It goes much farther than that. It helps you to live and gives you the opportunity to help, too. You are the mainstay of this work of humanity, by becoming a donor or an active booster you are helping not only yourself but others.

No one knows when a catastrophe may overtake you or I may be next. No one knows when a bottle of this Miracle Fluid might be the means of saving your life or mine.

It is no life boat to refer to a blood donation as "Miracle Fluid". It is exactly that. Do you realize that the most brilliant scientist in the most up-to-date laboratory cannot make as much as one tiny teaspoonful of it. More than that, they cannot make a true substitute for it. You and I and our good neighbors are the only source of supply. All we are asked to give is one small amount, less than a pint, of the 13 pints we normal humans have.

And of one some of our valuable time. Often we feel we cannot spare the time. However no time is wasted at those clinics nor is one precious drop of your "Miracle Fluid".

When you are asked to give a donation of blood for your blood bank you can rest assured that your system will make up the loss of fluid content in a few hours and in two or three weeks your blood will be back to normal.

The next Blood Donor Clinic will be held in Didsbury, Thursday, Dec. 4, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The Rugby W.I. whist drive, which was to be held at the home of Mrs. Alex Blain, Monday, Dec. 1, will now be held on that date at the home of the secretary, Mrs. D. Thompson.

Committee Report on Home For Aged Urges Start of Home In Didsbury

Youngstown — A double storey building and in a restricted area for drought stricken folks. It consists of the Agricultural buildings fitted to the occasion. The usual charge is made here also.

In every case these places are filled and very often have a waiting list except in the summer months when vacancies sometimes occur. For a period in the winter hospitals throughout the province are usually overcrowded because of old people occupying space as there is no room in homes.

Edmonton Salvation Army Home. A two storey home for men only, with all sleeping rooms upstairs. The dining room, lounge and office are on the main floor. Shelters from 25 to 28 men and the staff.

There also is a women's home in North Edmonton but we are not in possession of the details. This is also a two-storey building.

Kimberley has built a few houses costing about $8,000, similar to those built in Calgary by the Eastern Star, Kiwanis and Lions Club, to accommodate four guests in each. These houses are one storey.

Finally the Didsbury situation, which is by far the most important for our consideration. For two years or more research has been made, beginning with the department of Health Department, Mr. Hammell and I had an interview with Hon. Dr. Cross as to whether any direct help was given by the department. The reply was no government ever helped in giving direct assistance. The reason being that if they did, scores of towns and cities would be calling continuously for help. He stated that the municipalities are getting increased help every year and if any community is interested in a project of that kind and will furnish the buildings and set up a home, they can appeal to them and link up with the Department of Health from the standpoint of maintenance. See "Social Welfare" on page 3 of (51) report. Also see page 4 of Contributions and Grants, etc.

Dr. Cross also referred to the "Old age pension" as a help to feature the home. Some of the homes are self-sustaining, others are nearly so.

It will be seen from that point that the community has to make the initial move to show they are interested.

The next move we made was to determine whether the citizens at large were interested. From point of conversation they seemingly were. A series of meetings was held with the various groups and churches and in every case a resolution was passed expressing their interest favorably, at least sentimentally, including the town council.

The municipal council was also approached on the issue, but here we met our "Waterloo." We, of course, wanted the "Home" in Didsbury and it was supported by our representatives on said council, but Olds and other representatives said "We want it at Olds, at Crossfield," etc. Said council putting the matter to a municipal vote will never get a home in any of their respective towns due to the peculiar interests centred in each town. Said council spent $3,102 for the aged last year; $2,277 the previous year.

However, that is no reason why Didsbury should be without a "Home." The will of the people still rules and in this free country nothing can stop us "if we will!"

Following said efforts to see to what extent the expressed interest was real, we associated the economic phase with the sentimental and asked for promises of donations towards a definite set-up, a real beginning of a real issue. May say here it was the urging of two of our citizens that started me in investigating the possibilities and the need of the home. A year later we faced the practical need of a home ourselves. Also the need expressed by others. Then too, the dislike of our older citizens to be shipped away from where they spent their lives building up the community, contributing their quota by the sweat of their brow, sacrificing for others in pioneering that rising generations might inherit a social and Christian heritage if nothing more. Imagine the feeling it creates when you are forced to conclude that you are no longer wanted in a community that you have helped to create. It is definitely violating the fifth Commandment. This fact is becoming more and more a consideration, even by the Department of Health.

In our interview Dr. Cross definitely stated he favors the smaller local homes for the country people where they much prefer to be. The cities have their own problems. In this connection we could cite many instances revealing the sadness created by such a procedure. When I became fully aware of the situation, I must confess, I felt like blushing in shame for the negligence in simply talking about the matter without real action.

We have six churches in Didsbury, five more about us in the country. At annual conferences in all of these church denominations the matter has been discussed, the need considered — but left in that category from year to year because no one church could handle the situation. And why should they, when it is definitely a community affair in which all factions should unite? Here too, we may refer to the Linden Nursing Home which is financed by the Mennonites in that district, supplementing the guest fees when necessary. Surely, if said body can successfully manage that project, then it would seem strange if eleven churches, plus all the other organizations, could not handle a like project in Didsbury. More specially so, since we have an opportunity to start in a small and easy way, make our dollars go far.

Coming back to the promising of donations by our citizens, I may say the response has been good so far as contact has been made (from $1,000 in one instance to $5) without special pressure, the amount now stands at $8,200 with many citizens still to be contacted.

Others have stated "See me again later, I favor the idea." Only a few so far have shown indifference. The beginning is always the most difficult to face. To formulate and get under way said beginning, this meeting has been called.

Going into further details, your committee wishes to point out a few important facts:

To build new at this time would cost four times the amount of the price of the former hospital, $5,500, according to estimates given by several contractors.

The committee recommends emphatically to keep out of debt; get an early start to relieve the pressure of an acute situation; also we advise getting experience before we plunge into heavy obligations.

The home suggested has room for seven guests on the main floor, reserving the kitchen and dining room. On the second floor there is room for nine guests, reserving a sitting room. There is a bathroom and toilet on each floor.

Since it has served as a hospital it has been converted and equipped as a duplex. A new roof has been put on and the ceiling is insulated. An electric hot water heating system has been installed for use when the furnace is not used. A year ago a new furnace replaced the old one. It is fed by a stoker and regulated by thermostatic action. A septic tank takes care of the waste water. On the well which has supplied the water for the hospital is a power pump. Should, for any reason, this system fail to supply the need in the future, a good, tested well is only a block away and could

PREDICT 50 PER CENT MORE CARS BY 1960

How many cars and trucks can we put on our main thoroughfares, urban and suburban? How many more cars and trucks could we put on our highways on holiday week-ends? We don't need to get out the slide rule to figure the answers.

Some areas and certain main highways are already seriously, dangerously overloaded. Now then, let us listen to what the president of General Motors says:

"At the end of the war we felt that any prediction of three million vehicles in Canada by 1955 would no be justified. Already in 1952 we have reached that total. Now we are looking ahead to 1960 and later, and there is danger of being wrong, as we were before. Some economists believe that there will be 4,500,000 motor vehicles registered in Canada by 1960. I myself think the estimate is conservative."

That is a dreadful prospect — 50 per cent more cars than today. We simply couldn't begin to accommodate all these new vehicles on our present system of highways and streets.

"Motor vehicles are 10 years ahead of predictions in their efficiency and numbers, traffic arteries are 10 years behind."

Others have stated "See me again later, I favor the idea." Only a few so far have shown indifference. The beginning is always the most difficult to face. To formulate and get under way said beginning, this meeting has been called.

MORE RENTAL HOUSING

This is how the housing construction scene is shaping up, says the Financial Post.

A definite trend toward a large volume of rental housing and construction next year.

More attention to rental construction by both investors and government.

Some battles looming between private interests and socialized housing planners.

Renewed and stronger political pressure for rental housing assistance by labor groups and others.

Growing actual demand with down payment troubles increasing, building costs going higher and serviced land getting scarcer.

Through The Study Window

(By Rev. C. C. Armstrong)

Rev. Jesse M. Bader of the department of evangelism of the National Council of Churches (U.S.A.) has declared, in a burst of alliterative eloquence, that church communities are in danger of becoming a "complacent collection of clubby, chubby people who are satisfied with only themselves."

We do think he has a point there, although one is moved to quote a saying to the effect that "There are more queer fish out of the sea than there are in it." The qualities he mentions are certainly not confined to church people. But the good brother would have us to be energetic, enthusiastic and—apparently—preferably emaciated. To this we would add our "Amen."

Churches vary in their evangelistic emphasis. Some are even repelled by the very term—which they equate with an appeal to the emotions which simply leaves them cold. But a cold formalism is no substitute for the living warmth of vital religion.

Speaking of evangelism, I would call your attention to the coming visit of Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Templeton, who will be in Calgary November 30 to December 7, under the auspices of the Alberta Conference of the United Church. It is a fact that the evangelistic missions of the Templetons have drawn great crowds. But the mere fact that great crowds have gone to hear him is of little significance. What is really important is that Christ has been presented to them in such a way as to win the listless and indifferent. Mr. Templeton says, "This is the most challenging time in the world's history. Religion is a glorious adventure. You don't know what you're missing until you commit your life to God."

Let there be no quarreling over evangelism, and no fear of the term being misunderstood. It has been said "The Christian army is the only one where the soldiers are more afraid of each other than they are of the enemy." Don't be afraid to attend these meetings — Victoria Pavilion, Calgary, Nov. 30 to December 7.

Ninety per cent of the money raised in the Christmas Seal Campaign is spent for tuberculosis work in the community in which it is raised.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The proposition that Soul is in the realm of Spirit and not confined within the body, will be discussed Sunday in Christian Science churches. The Lesson-Sermon is on "Soul and Body" and it will contain this statement by Paul in his second letter to the Corinthians: "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." (5:8). And the declaration from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To be 'with the Lord' is to be in obedience to the law of God, to be absolutely governed by divine Love, by Spirit, not by matter." (14:9-11).

Ergot A Poison: It is important that livestock feeders recognize the poisonous qualities of ergot as well as the disease known as ergotism. As little as 0.15 per cent ergot in rye + one ergot kernel in 700 of grain) has been known to cause this disease.

Ergotism may be very serious and is marked in the early stages by irritation and pain in the extremities of the body, and later by a dry gangrene or mummification of the tail, ears and perhaps feet. Feeders should aim to avoid ergot entirely, especially with pregnant females. Certainly any grain containing 0.1 per cent or more of ergot material should be considered as dangerous. This would be between 300 and 600 ergot bodies per bushel. If such feed must be fed, the amount of ergot can be reduced by the use of the fanning mill and by mixing the diseased grain with other grain that is free of ergot.

LESSONS FROM U.S. ELECTION

What are the lessons for Canadians from the recent U.S. elections, asks a leading Canadian magazine. Time for a change, can be a potent factor, suggests the replies; also that party machines, labor leaders dictation and welfare appeals may be booming. Some sharply criticized mid slinging.

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL

- Information -

The Alberta Wheat Pool's assets include 485 country elevators with 410 annexes in this province and also in the Creston and Dawson Creek localities in British Columbia, the total capacity being 33,841,850 bushels. The Pool also owns a 5,150,000 bushel terminal at Vancouver and a 2,000,000 bushel terminal at Port Arthur. The grand total capacity of the entire system is 40,991,850 bushels.

Since its inception Alberta Wheat Pool has made the following payments:

Patronage dividends in cash	$ 5,099,683
Interest on reserves paid prior to 1929	631,253
Repayment of debt to government	8,855,629
Redemption of reserves	6,980,189
Total	$21,566,754
Patronage dividend paid in reserves	5,983,644

The ownership of the Alberta Wheat Pool and Pool Elevators rests with farmer reserve holders. The farmer can become a member of the Alberta Wheat Pool by delivering 300 bushels of grain to a Pool elevator and purchasing reserves to the value of $5.00.

The Pool policy provides for the payment of patronage dividends, partly in cash and partly in reserves, in years when earnings are sufficient to justify such action. Members can increase their reserve holdings by patronizing Alberta Pool Elevators.

This substantial Pool elevator system is a valuable property. It is operated for the benefit of the membership.

The Wheat Pool's objective is to keep handling charges as low as possible and return excessive earnings in the form of patronage dividends; also to redeem reserves from members who have ceased to farm.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Open House was a time of real fellowship and blessing to those who attended. Shortly before eight o'clock, people began to enter the College and as usual the young men served as efficient guides so that groups could see all the improvements on the campus.

On their return from the tour they were taken to the chapel to see the pictures of the choir tour last spring. A lovely lunch was served the guests in the newly decorated dining room at the conclusion of the showing of the films. The choir rendered several delightful selections, much to the satisfaction of the listeners. This year's choir has already proved praiseworthy and will be appearing at intervals during the year.

Several solos and piano numbers were given during the evening featuring the music department under the leadership of G. Lyle Richardson. During the program Mr. Richardson, on behalf of the faculty, presented the newly-elected president and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Donald M. Taylor, to the guests and presented Mrs. Taylor with lovely bouquet of American Beauty roses.

It is estimated that at least 400 guests were entertained during the course of the evening.

Mrs. Lydia Suder took charge of the morning services of the United Missionary Church on Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor.

Miss Gladys Eby was guest speaker in the May City church, both morning and evening on Sunday.

Mr. G. Lyle Richardson assisted Premier Manning in his program "Back to the Bible Hour" on Sunday. He will be playing the organ again next Sunday on the same program.

Students represented the College in six of the United Missionary churches on Sunday. They returned with glowing reports of the work done. Each Sunday finds them very busy teaching classes, preaching, singing or doing house to house visitation. Such experience will prepare them for both church work at home and on the foreign field.

In concluding this little summary of College activity may we as a faculty express our deep appreciation to all the friends who helped us make Open House a success this year. Many friends brought provisions of some sort or another; some helped in the kitchen and others helped during the evening. Thank you, each one.

The Willing Workers Club met at the home of Mrs. B. Jackson last Wednesday afternoon with 13 members and one visitor present. The meeting opened with the singing of "It's a Perfect Day" and "Pack Up Your Troubles," followed by the creed. Roll call was answered with "Your favorite radio program." The minutes were read and accepted.

A decision was made that the club purchase 10 decks of playing cards for the whist party, and hold an annual whist drive at the hall on Nov. 17. Prizes will be purchased out of club funds.

A motion was passed that a donation of $10 be sent to the Olds Rest Room and $5 to the Chaffin fund.

Members agreed to give 50 cents each towards the food parcel instead of having a gift exchange at the December meeting. Two short papers were given by Mrs. F. J. Jackson on "How To Make Christmas Candles" and "We Learn By Doing."

The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. J. Jackson.

A hard time dance will be held at the hall Friday, Nov. 22 with Gill's orchestra supplying the music. A prize will be given for ladies' and gents' costumes.

TODAY'S DAY

A hunter's day begins at dawn, And hopes are away up high. Today's the day you'll find that moose. Or know the reason why. You eat your fill and pack a lunch. You grab your gun and go. Today's the day you'll find that elk And shoot the so-and-so!

You hurry to a likely draw, From there you start out slow. Today's the day you'll see that buck. Just where you don't know; At ten o'clock you munch a bar And den up for a smoke. Today you've had no luck so far! Oh darn those antlered folk!

And then by noon your lunch is gone. That's right! You couldn't wait. Today's the day you're away up high.

No water! Sure as fate. So down the hill you wander now. But suddenly you stare. Today's the day you said at dawn: Is that darn thing a bear?

You ease the well-worn hammer back. Your heart starts pumping lead. This may be the day, you think! Oh! Shucks!

There're no horns on his head. You see a Doe, a female Elk. A cow Moose in the trees. Your heart beats fast at sight of them.

You stand on shaky knees. But at last, you're back in camp. You're hungry and in pain. Today is gone. Tomorrow comes! You'll have to try again.

WEDDINGS

GRIESE-TOPPIN

A quiet wedding was held at the Anglican church in Didsbury November 12th at which the principals were Miss Marie Toppin and Mr. Cecil Griese.

Bouquets of carnations banked the candle-lit altar before which Rev. Sheward performed the marriage ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Jim Toppin, the bride wore a long gown of white satin misted with a full-length veil which fell from a coronet of pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses. Her only jewellery was a silver locket.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Alice Ball, who wore a floor-length gown of gold broadened satin with finger-tip veil and mits of mauve. Her bouquet was bronzed carnations.

The groom was attended by Henry Unger, and ushers were Ronald Toppin and Raymond Vipond. Mrs. Sheward supplied the wedding music.

A reception for fifty guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Vipond. The bride's table, arranged with bouquets of pink and white carnations, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mr. W. Brower proposed the bridal toast, to which the groom responded. Later he read a telegram of congratulations from Alysunham, England.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Griese, father of the groom from Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Golden, B.C., Mr. and Mrs. Rindal of Red Deer and Mr. and Mrs. Reiffenstein and Darwin of Calgary.
